Renowned recycling equipment specialist Riverside Waste Machinery has announced the launch of a dedicated compacting division, on the back of rising customer demand.

For more than 20 years the North Yorkshire headquartered engineering team has become renowned for its UK supply and servicing of waste balers. But as the company's industry presence has grown, so too has the variety of technology offered.

[redacted] www.wastemachinery.co.uk [redacted]