

Tidy Planet has expanded into Scandinavia, appointing Norwegian waste management firm Berekraft for Alle as the company's latest distribution partner.

Translated into English as 'sustainability for all,' Berekraft for Alle is a start-up company on Norway's west coast, which specialises in the procurement of equipment for water purification, waste vacuum transport and composting. The move represents Tidy Planet's first commercial collaboration in this area of Northern Europe.

www.tidyplanet.co.uk